Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1887.

(Entered as Second Class mail matter.)

At the prize declamations of the Sophomores, Monday evening at the Lyceum, College, F. O. Russell of Lovell Center declaimed, subject, "Extract from Hicetia Address," Webster, and S. L. Fogg, South Paris, "Greek Revolution," City.

The York County Patrons' Fire Insurance Company has suspended. Recent fire losses had reduced the premium notes so low it was not considered safe for policy holders and the directors thought it prudent to disband.

A correspondent of the Argus says that Hiram Evans, who was accused by Osgood of complicity in the forgery of which the latter has pleaded guilty, was arrested again Friday, and arraigned before Judge Allen at Alfred. Several witnesses were examined, and Evans was held in jail for trial in September.

The present term of North Ridgdon Academy will close Thursday, July 14. The graduating class numbers twenty-one, and the parts have been assigned as follows: Oration, E. E. Russell; poetess, Carrie M. Holden; history, H. L. Bartlett; prophet, A. C. Phelps; orator, E. L. Latham; M. Dodge; valedictory, F. W. Dudley.

NORTH NORWAY.

Jonathan Herrick had the misfortune to cut his foot badly while at work for C. Cox.

E. A. Cox bought him a nice horse of A. F. Andrews last week.

Frank Cox and son Oscar have gone "cup country" on a fishing excursion.

No school at Swift's Corner this week, on account of the teacher, Cora Stuart, being sick.

Otis Martin has sold his farm to Daniel Bennett, so they say.

Two girls, 13 years old, Ella LeFavre and Lila Flint, walked June 12th to the Methodist Chapel to church and back in the forenoon and in the afternoon walked to Waterford to attend meeting, making a distance of 8 miles. Who says girls can't walk now as well as in "good old times" we read will kill her with a bush.

De Walker is about putting him up a stable near his residence, having sold his old stable to Josiah Richardson.

Georgia Herrick is at home on a visit for a few days.

Willie Brown has a mud turtle for a pet that weighs about 30 pounds.

Mrs. Harvey Knapp and daughter are very sick.

A lady from Waterville, Mrs. Estes, gave us a very interesting talk on temperance Monday evening at the Chapel.

REMARKS.

Another matched game of Base Ball was played here June 10th between our boys and the Bethel team, resulting in the defeat of the latter club. Last Sunday a game was played between the first and second nine of our club resulting in the defeat of the former by the score.

A grand good time is anticipated here July 4th. An oration, fanfares, base ball matches, potato races, etc., will be the order of the day, all to conclude with a grand ball at the Glen Mountain house in the evening. Music by Young's orchestra. The principal attraction of the day will be the grand ball on Bryant's Pond. Between Messrs. J. A. Montreuil and Beckley of Portland. We will give you readers a complete programme of the day's sports next week.

Rev. L. H. Tibbetts is now able to ride out.

Will Davis, who recently purchased the Chandler Curtis farm, now wishes to sell his home farm.

J. B. Kavanagh, who has been at the job printing office of A. M. Chase, has completed his engagement with him and gone home.

H. F. Houghton is paying 13 cents cash for eggs. He is now carrying a large stock of furniture as well as a good line of groceries.

Captain Rufus Randall of Freeport was in town last week for the purpose of purchasing a horse. We understand he has purchased one from Asa Martin of Rumford.

L. E. Pease of College Hill will commence his lecture on the Universalist Society here next Sunday, June 10th at 10:30 o'clock, a. m. All cordially invited. Sabbath School will meet at the close of the services.

EAST MEADOW.

Last Sabbath being Children's Day an appropriate discourse was preached by the pastor, followed by a Sabbath school concert. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and eagles of beautiful songsters filled the church with notes of joy and praise, each trying to rival the others in their music.

Mrs. Elbridge Russell, near Chase's Mills, had a large abcess opened in her side last Friday. Her case is thought to be very doubtful.

L. G. Kory sold his cow to Pomplun of Auburn for $300.

A. E. Robinson sold his rackler to Elder Samuel Reed of Lisbon.

The Good Templars from this place enjoyed the District Lodge at Norway and the nice dinner furnished by Rev. S. H. Ledge was enjoyed by the good friends for which they received many thanks.

Commissioner Reed from Lewiston was in the place Sunday.

E. G. Marshall visited his old home and friends last week and went from there to New Hampshire with his little boy to visit friends in that place.

UTAH.

School commenced District No. 4, June 7, taught by Miss Thompson of Paris.

M. Coudage has just added a coat of paint to his store, which gives it a very fine appearance.

The painters are at work on H. M. Lombard's house.

Charles Chase has sold his horses and gone to Canada to buy some more.

H. F. West has been running his shingle mill day and night for the past two weeks and is now saving long lumber.

We listened to a very able sermon by Rev. Mr. Williamson, Sunday the 12th.

FORTLE.

L. L. Cook and Melvin Walker of this town have gone to Great Falls, N. H., to canvas for fruit trees and shrubs for Mr. Freeman of Bridgton.

Ulysses Pugsley has gone to Boston to see about his health and to see his friends.

Moses Stanley and wife of South Hill were guests at David A. Colcord's one day last week.

We were much pleased to receive a call from our friend, Oliver S. Chapman, a few days ago. He has been stopping in Lynn, Mass., the most of the summer, and will remain at the hotel until after the 4th of July and then return to his business.

WELCHVILLE.

K. of L. Fair and Festival at Eureka Hall on Friday evening, June 24. Strawberries, ice-cream cake, and other refreshments, etc., will be served. A fish-pond, fancy table, guess cake, fudge, etc., etc., etc., will be served. Admission 10c. 5c.

NORTH RICHFIELD.
